ORGAN RECITALS

Each Saturday during term time there is an organ recital at 6.30 pm until 7.15 pm. Admission is free, and there is a retiring collection. Amongst visiting recitalists this term is Johannes Geffert, who will be working with the Cambridge University Organ Scholars' Forum.

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER SERVICES

This year sees the second festival of music for Holy Week and Easter, in which a series of concerts complements the traditional services. Details of the concerts and how to book tickets appear later in this booklet.

MUSIC

The 250th anniversary of the birth of Mozart on 27 January 1791 is marked by the singing of his Missa brevis K194 at the Sung Eucharist on 29 January, by the performance of some of his organ music in Stephen Cleobury's recital on 11 February, and, later, in an all Mozart concert on Easter Eve, 15 April, as part of the Easter Festival.

On 5 December 2005 the Choir gave the première of 'Heart of Jesu' by Robin Walker, commissioned to celebrate the 10th Series of International Concerts at the Bridgewater Hall, Manchester, to which the choir is a regular contributor. This anthem can be heard again at Evensong on 21 January.

Sir David Willcocks, Hon. Fellow and formerly Organ Scholar and Director of Music, will conduct the choir at the services on 25 and 26 February.

ILLUSTRATIONS

This term's illustrations are reproduced from Hilary Wayment's collection of photographs of the Great Windows. They are:

Cover: Judas betrays Christ

January: Christ in Chains

February: Christ is Blindfold

March: The Unrepentant Thief

KING'S COLLEGE CHAPEL. The building was begun by Henry VI in 1446 and is an important part of our national heritage. The architectural majesty of the Chapel and the extraordinary musical quality of the Choir are admired by millions of people every year. The College is solely responsible for the upkeep of the Chapel.

KING'S COLLEGE CHAPEL FOUNDATION was established in 1997 to safeguard and enhance the tradition of choral worship and musical excellence through long-term support of the Choir; to protect the Chapel through maintenance and conservation of this historic structure, its fabric and furnishings; and to enhance visitors' experience of the Chapel and its daily services.
